Meet the world's top echelon of automotive artists in Automobile Quarterly's masterful compendium of the fine art and artists of the Automotive Fine Arts Society (AFAS). Articles capturing the unique personalities of all 32 artists of the AFAS are complemented by striking reproductions of their work, including the latest paintings and sculptures. Step into the world of artistic elegance and top-shelf talent, where behind-the-canvas interviews reveal artists' impressions and philosophies. See for yourself what makes these masters tick, what stirs the passion that translates into powerful expression. This ultimate coffee-table book also covers the work and biographies of deceased automotive art luminaries such as Peter Helk, Walter Gotschke and Carlo Demand.
